To whom it may concern,

I am writing on behalf of Yiting Lin. My name is William McCabe. I have known Yiting since meeting him in the Indie Game Club here at University of California Santa Cruz last year. He messaged me and our friends asking to write a good morale letter and I was more than happy to write one.

Throughout my time knowing Yiting Lin, he has been a supporting friend and a wonderful teammate in making games together throughout last year. He is hardworking and honest and a trusting member of our team and our friend group and has helped me gain confidence in myself with my programming and game design skills. He takes on many tasks for our group and he always completes them on time and is willing to take on more.

I have worked with him in the Indie Game Club and University of California Game Design and Art Collaboration Club and throughout my experience working with him, every single interaction I have with him showcases great confidence that Yiting Lin is a good, upstanding, morale person that his skills will help benefit our society, both as a computer scientist and as a loyal and caring friend.

He is a good and upstanding citizen and friend without a doubt in my mind and I will gladly vouch on his behalf.

Sincerely,
- William Philip McCabe
